ORGANIZATIONAL and UNIVERSITY SYSTEM DEVELOPMENT

HISTORY

In 1959, Dr. Masters opened the Institute of Parapsychology in the heart of Beverly Hills, California. The aim of the institute was to research higher and expanded states of consciousness as they related to spiritual reality and human self betterment. He built a large following of students and had to relocate to the Hollywood area where larger space was available. During the same time period, Dr. Masters trained his first few teachers.

1963

In 1963, Dr. Masters opened the Mediological Foundation as a follow-up to research findings amassed in the Institute of Parapsychology. The study and research now focused primarily on the practices of meditation. Thousands of research experiences by experimenting students were recorded and the effects on their practical daily lives and spiritual unfoldment were noted. During this time, Dr. Masters trained numerous meditation teachers.

1965

In 1965, the culmination of the previous years of research began to travel beyond the Southern California area in printed lessons throughout the United States. Because of this, the National Metaphysics Institute was founded by Dr. Masters. The lessons attracted attention from all parts of the country from people who wished to teach the spiritual truths revealed in lesson materials. Dr. Masters created specific ministerial ordination programs to meet this need with people achieving ministerial status through distance learning all home study.

1976

In 1976, to meet a now rising interest by ministerial graduates for degree programs. Dr. Masters applied for and gained the legal right to establish the University of Metaphysics and grant non-secular degrees for use by those who were ordained by the N.M.I. ministry up to a Doctoral Degree level. At this point, Dr. Masters began to have the Doctoral program advertised in various regional and national magazines related to metaphysics. Suddenly as if by grace of a Divine plan, enrollment not only came from all over the United States, but the entire world as these English language magazines were distributed in other countries as well.

1989

By 1989, thousands had enrolled in Doctoral Degree programs throughout the world. The organization and its university had become worldwide. To meet the needs of this enormous growth, Dr. Masters incorporated the International Metaphysical Ministry which exists up to the present day.

In 2002, while on a trip through Arizona, Dr. Masters visited Sedona, Arizona—a place he heard of for years as having a great deal of metaphysical activity because of people's claims of having spiritual experiences in energy vortexes in the area. The spiritually inspiring beauty of Sedona, combined with inner higher guidance caused Dr. Masters to wish to have a university location there.

In 2003, Dr. Masters sought after and established the legal right in Arizona to found the University of Sedona and award non-secular degrees up to Doctoral or Ph.D. level in the various ministerial specialties of the organization—the International Metaphysical Ministry.

In 2004, in order to centralize the function of the two university programs for the sake of maintaining tuitions enrollees could easily afford—the University of Metaphysics after having functioned for decades in the Los Angeles area, was moved in its entirety (all accumulated records of thousands of students and graduates) to the Sedona area.

Now

Now the University of Metaphysics and the newer University of Sedona—still under Dr Masters' direction—continue to grow with a worldwide student population into the thousands. Built from its beginning in 1959 and having attracted a worldwide alumni—its student population continues to study and bring the higher truth of human nature to a world so in need of it.

Testimonials

QUALITY DOCTORAL LEVEL STUDY
EXCERPTS FROM UNSOLICITED STUDENT LETTERS

"I wish to express my gratitude for your devotion and commitment to uphold the space for others to receive professional certification and recognition to be of service to others. After 50 years of service to so many others, it is clear that you walk your talk – and I wish to say at this time, Thank You!"

"From the modest days when most of the world was unaware of the meaning of the word Metaphysics, you had a vision and a drive to create the ministry to create the means for so many others to serve and follow in your footsteps. For caring and nurturing the program through lean years and years not so lean, you have held the candle, the light for others, such as me to recognize and benefit from."

"I feel honored by having this connection to you in this way, to have completed your doctoral program, and to be recognized in the world in this way – Although I do not intend to have an active ministry at this time."

"It may not be everyday that you receive acknowledgement of your efforts, the gratitude from fellow graduates - nor does it seem to have been your intention to receive such accolades from your students, I respect your modesty and wish to simply say again Thank You for creating and maintaining the program. Should I ever find myself with the opportunity to be in Sedona, I look forward to the chance to personally express my gratitude. Until then, go well and remain well. In Oneness with much appreciation."

Dr. S. A., D.Phil – Australia

"My lifelong interest in metaphysics and spiritual development was enhanced by completing the UOM course and receiving my doctorate. Thank you. I'm now living in China, back teaching English at university. As you are probably aware the authorities here are nervous about foreigners being involved in anything vaguely "religious". As my approach to metaphysical teaching is somewhat psychological and philosophical in tone, I'm able to deliver some very interesting lectures and have some very interesting discussions without arousing the zeal of supersensitive officials."

"For several months now I've been gathering notes for a dissertation and when my present project (further qualification in English teaching) is finished later this year I will enroll for my second doctorate with you. I wish you continuing, health, happiness, and success, and thank you increasing the light in the world."

W. P. –China

"I am a recently enrolled student in your program, a seminary-trained United Methodist Pastor with 19 years of continuous ministry practice. I have also earned a doctorate from a regionally accredited institution. Yet I have never received such useful instruction in all of my experience. Thank you. I will be a better minister / practitioner because of the study I am doing with the University."

Rev. M. R. – West Virginia, USA

"I graduated with a doctorate last year, and I just had to take a moment to tell you that your university curriculum has profoundly changed my life. My mind has been opened to a multitude of new possibilities. My spiritual journey continues each and every day, and the improvements I've made in my life have been amazing. I've discovered an inner happiness that I never knew was possible. I've also had the opportunity to share the spiritual message of new thought metaphysics as a result of having two articles published in national magazines and being invited to give talks at local churches. Thank you so very much to the University of Metaphysics and Sedona and to Dr. Paul Leon Masters for all of your guidance!"

Dr. E.L.D. – Indiana, USA

"I am so pleased to have my Doctorate. It is an amazing feeling of accomplishment and achievement – especially since I enjoyed every minute of the journey. I highly encourage others to look into the University Of Metaphysics."

D. V. – South Africa

"I thought I had a good idea about what Mysticism and Metaphysics were all about through my years of self-study, but since I enrolled with the University... WOW! I can't wait for the next module to see what else there is to learn."

M. M. – Utah, USA

"I would like to recommend the University Of Metaphysics and Sedona as THE organization to study Metaphysics with. As I followed the studies, it created such a mind shift that I started to command my thought energy and today I am able to create and manifest the reality that I focus on to quite a high extent and at quite a fast rate."

A. G. – United Kingdom

"You have no idea how all of you at IMM have made such a difference in my life. No matter what I call to ask, every one of you demonstrate through your talk and actions utmost kindness, courteousness and true caring. I appreciate you more than I can ever express in words. Thank you."

D.S. – Canada

"I definitely want to go ahead with a second Doctorate through the University of Sedona. I think it important to let you know just how profoundly my first Doctoral affected me. I struggled with dyslexia my whole life, creating unique ways to stretch myself into my ultimate potential as a therapist and alternative healer. During my year of intense study with The University and also by diligently practicing the techniques Dr. Masters suggested, I have found complete healing from dyslexia."

"My confidence grew to such an extent that I began to write my first book, "People of the Light", which should be on the shelves in a couple of months. I have begun my second book in a series of three, titled "People of the Light Return". I have given credit to Dr. Masters in my first book as without this awesome educational opportunity I do not believe I would of ever got around to believing in myself enough to take on so big a creative challenge. I am now writing full time and have not yet made it financially in the world of publishing. But this will change soon and I will contribute generously to The University with the intention of making this opportunity available to all who feel the call."

A. A. – Australia

"I am the first physician here to study metaphysics and now apply it in healing many patients. I am proud of the University and the immense knowledge it has given me. Thank you."

S. K. P. – India

"Since I first graduated from the Bachelor's program, I have counseled thousands of individuals from around the world. I have cared for others, helping them pass on. I have ministered at births as the spiritual midwife, performing baptisms as these new spirits enter the realm. I have performed marriages and have been a blessing to countless individuals during my career. I am now semi-retired, and just wanted to express my appreciation for the joys in my life that your education has made possible. Bless you, and the organization which has helped so many of us to help others."

R. T. – Oregon, USA

"I am inspired to write a short note of appreciation. I can't believe the change that has come over me. Everything has changed in the twinkling of an eye. My relationships with family, friends, and clients have all changed for the better. My perception and awareness has opened up over night. My intuition has opened up. My dreams have become so clear that I now understand them even better on awakening in the morning. But more important than this, is the inner change I feel. I don't feel like a worm munching away on as much knowledge as I can but rather a butterfly that has just stretched its wings and discovering a whole new world that has been lost to me for some time now. Thank you for giving me what was missing from my life and I know my Intuition is going to get stronger by the day. Your work is Pure Light."

T. S. – South Africa

"Over the past several months I have been looking into finding a school that meets my needs. I have had the opportunity to talk with people at several schools, but none impressed me as much – You are definitely an organization I want to be a part of. Please accept my enrollment."

L. H. – Texas, USA

"I have enjoyed and learned every minute of this course. I thank you."

D. G. – South Africa

"My son is stationed in Iraq, and is in constant fear for his life. It is no coincidence that I started with the University shortly before he joined the military – It is my conversations with him about the course materials that keeps him safe and sane. Thank you."

S. K. – Georgia, USA

"J. W. for Australia here, I just wanted to give an update on my study. Enjoying this course enormously and I have evolved in every way possible, I believe."

J. W. – Australia

"Truly a prestigious University. Thank you so much for your help, support and understanding. I am so looking forward to living up to the University's ideals."

Y. F. – France

"The University Of Metaphysics is a class act and I am glad to be associated with it!"

Dr. J. L. C. – Oklahoma, USA

"Allow me to take this opportunity to thank everyone affiliated with the University for the wonderful work you are doing. Thank you Dr. Masters for being brilliant enough to bring such great truths of the Universal Cosmos right down to the human level of comprehension."

E. S. – California, USA

"I am especially grateful for all the spiritual growth – the insight, support, knowledge and strength – that I am now receiving because of the University's dedication and teachings."

M. J. K. – California, USA

"I thank God for the vision to take part in this wonderful program. Thank you for providing the tools for the full integration of the lessons."

K. C. – Maryland, USA

"I have enjoyed the lessons and found them to be informative while maintaining a realistic, workable approach to the metaphysical philosophies."

W. W. – Florida

The luck fate or karma broadcast was EXTREMELY DEEP, BENEFICIAL and PROFOUND. Subjects I have already known deep inside myself but never, until now, heard it expressed by another person. Pure genius. Keep up the good work with lectures that dive into the more advanced mystical subjects, rather than the "baby" metaphysics.

T. H.

"I am deeply impressed with the effort put forth by everyone involved with the University."

M. C. – California, USA

"It was my great pleasure to watch "Overcoming Obstacles". I would like to express my thanks for the opportunity to participate in such profound metaphysics. Dr. Paul Leon Masters is brilliant. As a fellow metaphysician, I greatly admire the fact that he leaves nothing out. The logic is complete and sound, not unlike the beautiful Light of Christ which shines through Dr. Masters as he speaks. I learn something every time I listen."

A NEW DEFINITION OF THE MEANING OF “METAPHYSICS”

Traditionally, the word “Metaphysics” comes to us from Ancient Greece, where it was a combination of two words—Meta, meaning over and beyond and physics. Thus, the combination means over and beyond physics. In the definition found in most dictionaries, Metaphysics is referred to as a branch of Philosophy that deals with First Cause and the Nature of Being. It is taught as a branch of Philosophy in most academic universities today under the label of “Speculative Philosophy.”

In today’s world, however, the word “Metaphysics” has become a description of many fields of interest. When one expresses an interest in Metaphysics, that interest may be in any one or a combination of the following subjects:

Philosophy, Religion, Parapsychology, Mysticism, Yoga, ESP, Dreams, Jungian Psychology, Astrology, Meditation, Self-Help Studies, Positive Thinking, Life After Death, Reincarnation, etc.

The common denominator of these and all similar subjects, of course, deals with an exploration of Reality, and in the idealistic sense, how such knowledge may benefit human life on this earth, both individually and collectively. If, then, this is the aim of such interests, it is why most professional Metaphysical Practitioners regard Metaphysics as a Spiritual Philosophy of life. All but a very few practitioners in Metaphysics today have a pivotal point of some sort of Spiritual Philosophy in whatever system or teaching of Metaphysics they are engaged. It is important to understand this, especially when reviewing the legal technicalities of being a professional Metaphysician.

If we were to travel from one metaphysical teacher or organization to another, we would find people engaging in different things, all under the label of Metaphysics. This could be a wide range, such as yogis, mystics astrologers, positive thinking teachers, meditation teachers, grapho-analysts, spiritual healers, self-help teachers, etc. The range is wide, but again the basic denominator is the search for truth, purpose and meaning in life, which cannot be isolated from basic spiritual questions. All of these fields, therefore, are regarded as part of Metaphysics by the University of Metaphysics and the University of Sedona, in regard to its Doctoral Degree and to its other programs and affiliations with its students and graduates.

It is not the position of the university or its parent body, the International Metaphysical Ministry, to take one phase of study over another, as it is the belief of the universities that there are many paths humans may travel on the way to finding Truth. There is an old proverb which states “No matter what path a human may travel, it is My Path; no matter where he walks, it leads to Me”

In a more absolute sense, we like to think of Metaphysics as dealing with the basic questions of life, i.e., the relationship of man. Mind and the universe, which leads to answers to the age-old questions of anyone who has truly paused to reflect on life by asking the most fundamental questions of all—“Who am I; what am I; where have I been, and where am I going?”

DEFINING “HOLISTIC”

The word holistic is defined in general terms in the dictionary as the theory that a whole is greater than its parts.

In recent decades the word has come to be used in much more expanded ways as follows:

- IN GENERAL - Referring to the concept of a whole person or a person who has synthesized the three major parts of their being, body, mind and soul or spirit.
- SPIRITUALLY - Referring to attempting to become a whole person by synthesizing body, mind, and soul or spirit.
- MEDICALLY OR IN THE GENERAL HEALING ARTS - General reference to natural, alternative, complimentary, and preventative healing modalities.
- IN MINISTRY - Used by metaphysical or non-denominational ministers who specialize in pastoral counseling and/or spiritual healing.

DEFINING “NEW THOUGHT”

“New Thought” can be found in larger unabridged dictionaries and is described as a religious movement. The so-called father of New Thought was a man by the name of Phineas Parkhurst Quimby who taught and practiced various forms of spiritual mind healing. The basic premise was that everything is one vast universal mind, the human mind and body included. The One Mind is God, one with the human mind. By thinking healing in the human mind/body, the God part of the mind could effect a healing.

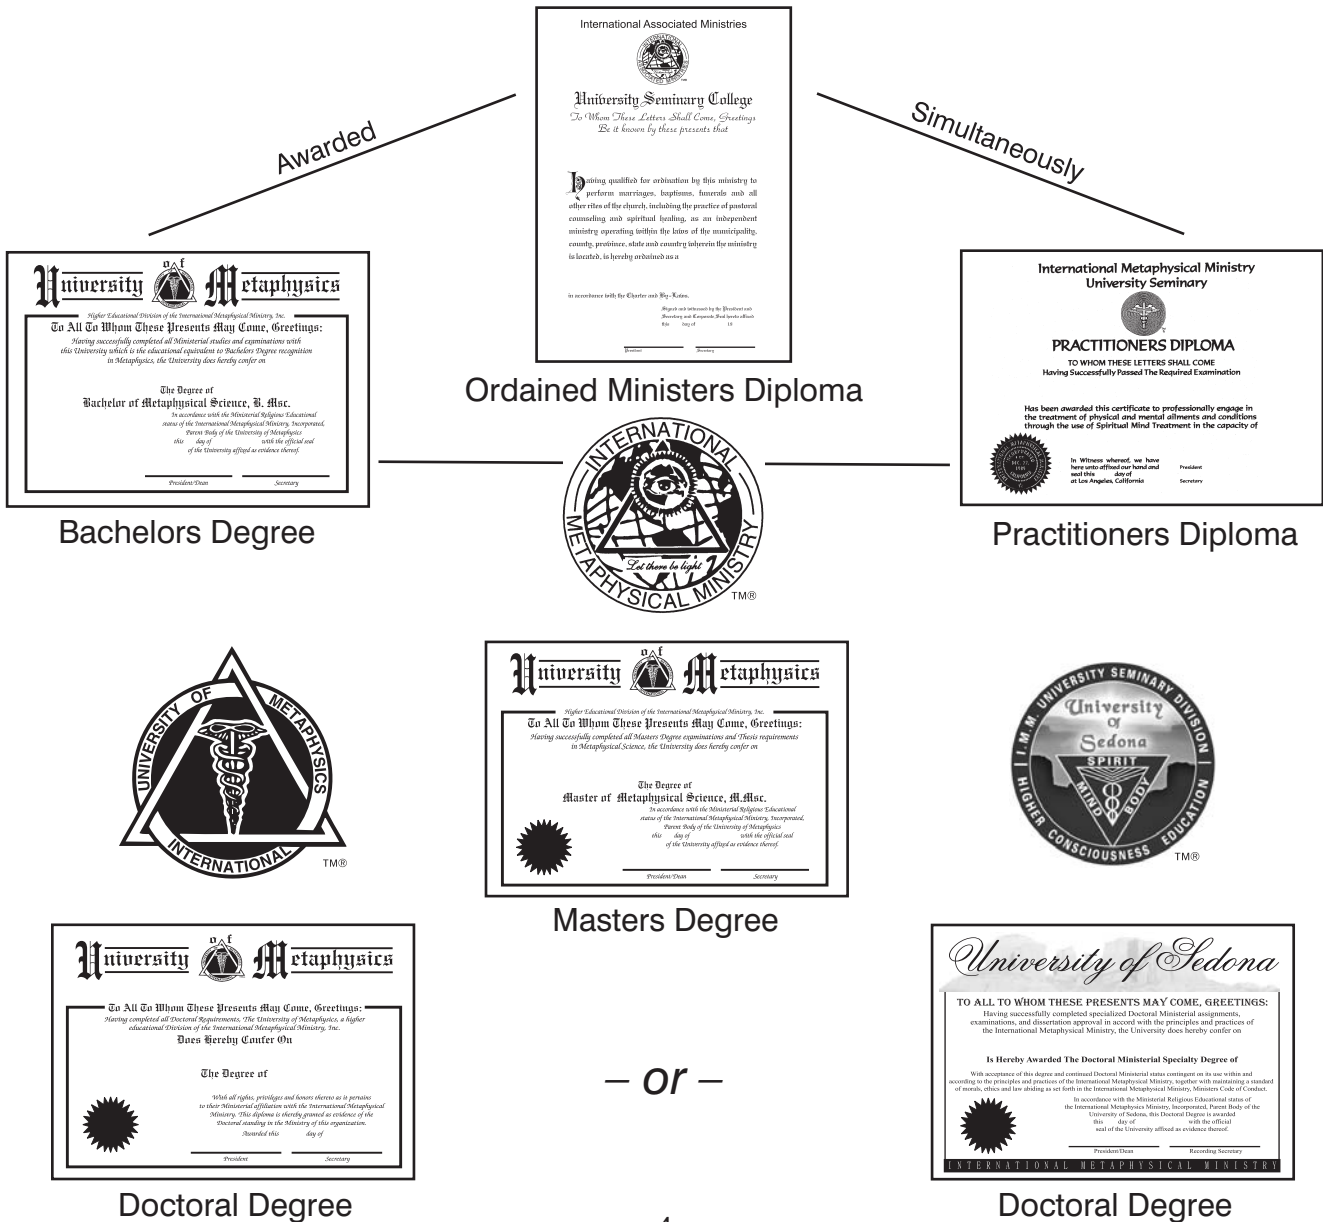

Phineas Parkhurst Quimby supposedly taught this to Mary Baker Eddy. Eddy began Christian Science, the first large metaphysical church in modern history. The success of Christian Science stimulated the growth of other metaphysically oriented groups, later to become church organizations. Most notable and successful of these was Unity or the Unity School of Christianity, started by Charles and Myrtle Fillmore. Religious Science or The Church of Religious Science founded by Ernest Holmes later followed this. The success of Unity and Religious Science stimulated the birth of many independent churches and teaching centers along metaphysical lines. Because of a common shared spiritual philosophy held by Unity, Religious Science and many independents, the term New Thought was adopted to denote a religious movement. From this was born the International New Thought Alliance, that brought together various metaphysical groups. In more recent years a new organization bringing together New Thought oriented organizations was formed called Global New Thought.

In 1959, Dr. Paul Leon Masters began what has later on evolved to become the International Metaphysical Ministry. I.M.M. has joined Unity and Religious Science as one of the major metaphysically oriented movements that comes under the description of New Thought. The major difference between I.M.M. and the other majors is that I.M.M. ordained ministers are free to choose operating names of their choice, as well as what they teach and how they operate providing only that the basic metaphysical teachings of the organization and its founder are still an integral part of what is shared with the public.

I.M.M. was born of an independent, Dr. Masters, for those who also wished to be independents though ordained by I.M.M. I.M.M. and its University System of the University of Metaphysics and the new University of Sedona are therefore very unique indeed in the field of religion in general and in New Thought.

Degrees and Diplomas Awarded

Upon successful completion of the entirety of the Doctoral Degree Program, you will have been awarded the following degrees and diplomas.

PRELIMINARY COMMENTS TO CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Before commencing with information on specific career opportunities available in the field of Metaphysics, here are a few thoughts to keep in mind.

First, you will be reading about the more common approaches used by metaphysicians. We present these merely as examples, as we have far more up-to-date knowledge to impart to you. This knowledge has been accumulated over many years through our own experience in conducting many of the opportunities described herein, and from our close contact with other professionals in the metaphysical field. Although some of what is described herein will appeal to most readers, there is no reason to feel limited exclusively to these career opportunities. As the field grows, it may be that you or someone else may find new ways or means of communicating metaphysical teachings to the public, always making certain, of course, that any change or innovation follows and is in strict accordance with the legalities applicable to metaphysical practices at that time. So again, do not feel limited to the career opportunities described herein. We stress at this point, as many who have inquired about a metaphysical career, while communicating to us their enthusiasm and desire to enroll in our Doctoral Degree Program, have at the same time expressed their uncertainty as to what they wish to do after graduation. Therefore, once again, legalities considered, there is no reason to feel that you are limited solely to the career opportunities described in this report.

Secondly, many interested people have pointed out that they would like to take our Doctoral Degree Program for the knowledge factor alone. This would be their purpose in enrolling rather than actually planning to go into the professional practice of Metaphysics. If you are one who feels this way, we would certainly welcome your enrollment in the same spirit as we would those who wish to take the Doctoral Degree Program with a professional practice in mind.

Finally, whether your choice to become a Doctoral Degree candidate with our universities is motivated by the desire to go into a professional metaphysical practice or to enroll solely for the metaphysical knowledge that may be acquired, we would like to point out that many of our students have expressed their gratitude to us for the improvement they have realized in their individual lives as a result of their studies. It certainly is most gratifying for us at our universities to receive so many letters of praise from students who feel that the quality of their lives has been improved through their studies. This is true especially when, as in many cases, this praise has come from long time students and long-standing professional practitioners alike.

Whatever your motivation for enrolling and becoming a Doctoral Degree candidate, you may be assured that the quality and nature of the studies covered in our Doctoral Degree Program can make a dramatic improvement in your life. Specifically, it can bring forth your inner potential for successful living from the practical standpoint in matters of love, romance, marriage, income, career, inner confidence, peace of mind, creativity – to the growth and expansion of your mind (inclusive of Higher Consciousness), expanded awareness, increased intuition and sensitivity, and self-realization.

Now, with all this in mind, review the following descriptions of proven areas of opportunities in Metaphysics, which you might consider for yourself upon doctoral graduation from the University of Metaphysics or the University of Sedona.

YOUR WORK IN METAPHYSICS AS A DOCTOR OF METAPHYSICS AND PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATE OF THE INTERNATIONAL METAPHYSICAL MINISTRY

The choice of how you wish to conduct your professional work is entirely up to you. Here are some common examples of how professionals in Metaphysics are operating today:

ESTABLISHING A METAPHYSICAL TEACHING AND/OR COUNSELING CENTER

The choice here is for those who like an educational atmosphere in which to present metaphysics to others. This often times makes the spiritual issues that are dealt with more acceptable to some than in a church-like atmosphere.

The facility used for this purpose may be an office, a suite of offices, a home that is properly zoned or a storefront operation. Some organizations or teachers who specialize in courses or seminars prefer to rent space in hotels or similar facilities in which to conduct their classes and/or meetings.

Many prefer to work with students on an individual counseling or tutoring basis. Others combine both individual and group activities as part of their programs. In the business administration part of the Doctoral Degree Program, full guidance is given on how to successfully set up anything described here at a minimum starting cost.

ESTABLISHING A METAPHYSICAL CHURCH SET-UP

Some metaphysicians feel more relaxed in regard to their work when operating in a definite spiritual atmosphere. Thus, they set up a storefront operation, or convert a home into a suitable church type setting. This is especially suitable for those who wish to deal with the metaphysical interpretation of the Bible or other religious scriptures, or with spiritual healing. Some rent theatres or halls in which to conduct their Sunday services.

WORKING FOR OTHERS

Oftentimes metaphysicians of similar interests will come together in a partnership arrangement, or hire out to an organization whose interests coincide with their own. As the number of metaphysical organizations is growing daily, it seems that this will occur more frequently in the future. It is a way of entering into the field of Metaphysics without an investment in a facility, and is an approach recommended by our universities for those just graduating. This is a way to begin, generally on a spare time basis, while keeping your present employment until such time as you have honed your skills adequately to develop metaphysical earnings sufficient to enable you to safely enter into Metaphysics on a full time basis.

Now we will deal with specific career opportunities, as well as possible earnings. In no way can we guarantee the earning potential discussed here, as earnings may be less or more than depicted. We realize that most practitioners are idealistic, and this is as it should be, but the practical necessities of life must be provided; therefore, this is intended, at least, to give you some ideas to work with.

WRITING

Over the past few decades, writing has been the most lucrative undertaking for most professional metaphysicians. New books on metaphysical subjects continue to pour off the presses as never before, and are being purchased in greater numbers. What about the earnings? Let us examine the possibilities. Cost of the average hardcover metaphysical book today is $22.95; let us round that out to $23.00. A small sale of 50,000 copies is not unusual. The average royalty is 10%. That would mean $2.30 in your pocket for every book sold or a total of $115,000 in royalties. Far more is realized by some professional metaphysicians who effectively publish and distribute the books themselves. As an example, one book containing metaphysical subjects, entitled "Psycho-Cybernetics," by Maxwell Maltz has sold well into the millions. Again, we can make no guarantees. We can only state what has been done by others. We can say, however, that doctoral degree recognition from our universities can certainly be an asset in helping writers establish themselves.

THE PROFESSIONAL LECTURE CIRCUIT

A human interest article appearing in a past issue of the Los Angeles Times stated that speakers dealing with metaphysical subjects are now most in demand on the professional lecture circuit, in far greater demand than any other group--including political speakers. If you are not already familiar with the professional lecture circuit, here is the gist of it. There are professional booking agents for lecturers, just as there are theatrical agents for performers. If you have no objection to traveling, agents will arrange booking for your lectures before churches, social groups, fund raising groups, charities, fraternal organizations, colleges, business groups, etc. Top lecturers in the field currently earn up to $50,000 per lecture.

As a rule, agents prefer to handle lecturers who can command at least $1,000.00 per lecture. Of this amount, the agent usually takes a commission of 10% to 20%. On this minimum schedule, therefore, the least you would receive for one lecture is $800. Three lectures scheduled weekly could produce $2,400.00 each week. Your doctoral degree recognition could make the difference in an agent's decision whether or not to take you on, especially in the initial stages when you are trying to establish yourself. Again, our universities cannot guarantee anything and can only state what has been achieved by others.

LECTURING FOR METAPHYSICAL ORGANIZATIONS

Most organizations offer lecturers a percentage of the gate, usually from one-third to one-half of the monies collected. The average metaphysical lecture today generally has an attendance of 100 people, at an average admittance of $10.00 each. That would mean that an average lecture would produce $1,000.00. Your earnings, therefore, could be anywhere from $330.00 to $500.00. Three lectures weekly of this type could produce somewhere between $990.00 and $1,500.00.

WEEKEND SEMINARS

Larger earnings could be anticipated for teaching weekend seminars, which have become increasingly popular in the last few years. Today, the charge for an average weekend seminar runs about $250.00, with an average attendance of 100 people. That could mean a gross of $25,000.00. Most organizations generally will pay a seminar teacher 5% to 10% of the gross receipts, which in this example could realize $1,250.00 to $2,500.00 for teaching. Seminars such as these represent good earnings for most people.

CONDUCTING 'YOUR OWN' SEMINARS

Your financial risk factor is higher here, because you, yourself must spend the monies necessary for advertising to promote the seminar and to obtain an appropriate facility, etc. However, if your seminar is successful and grosses $25,000.00, your expenses will more than likely have been about half that amount, or $12,500.00, leaving you with a like amount as net profit for a weekend of teaching, which also involved a great deal of administrative work. It is suggested that our graduates ease into this type of undertaking slowly, because of the financial risk factors involved. However, if you once successfully establish such a seminar program, thousands of dollars in net profit weekly is possible. Again, we cannot guarantee it, but can only speak of the financial potential.

RECORDINGS

This is an ever-expanding metaphysical market, thanks to cassette recordings and CD's. Most everyone owns a cassette recorder or CD player today or can purchase one inexpensively. The average cassette tape in metaphysics today retails for $9.95. We will round out that figure to $10.00, as we are taking an average. Cassette duplicating companies vary considerably in their prices, but the average duplication cost for a cassette tape is about $2.00, when ordered in small quantities. That leaves a profit of $8.00 per tape, less the cost of advertising or promotion and mailing costs if sales are by mail order. You can figure that about half of your profit or $4.00 will go towards this, leaving you with $4.00 as an average profit per tape. If you sell through stores, you would generally give them 40% of the retail price. However, because of a larger volume through store sales, your cost of reproduction would drop to approximately $1.00 leaving you with a profit of $5.00 per tape. If you were to sell 100 tapes per week, you could expect to earn a weekly profit of about $500.00. Not much, agreed, but if you were to put out a series of tapes (let us say five), and all were selling 100 copies per week, that could net you a total of $2,500.00 each week. Again, our universities cannot guarantee this will happen, but it has been done by others

In recent years, CD sales have overtaken cassette tape sales. That is a very good thing because the profit margin is much higher. The average CD in the holistic metaphysical field today retails for about $16.00. Cost in fully packaged CD's from duplicators generally run about $3.00 in small quantities. That leaves a $13.00 margin between cost and retail. Figure $3.00 per CD towards promotion leaves you with a $9.00 profit per CD. If you were to sell 100 CD's per week, that would equal $900.00 per week. If you were to sell to stores, less 40% or $6.40 for their profit, you would be left with $8.60, less your cost of $3.00 leaves $5.60. If you had recorded 5 CD's and they all sold 100 copies per week your profit would be $2,800 per week. No guarantee can be made as to how much you would earn—but the profit potential can be enormous. DVD's and Videos can be produced in relatively small quantities including packaging from $3.00 to $5.00. The average DVD or Video in the Holistic New Thought Metaphysical field retails for $19.95 or $20.00 rounded. That leaves a margin of $15.00 to $18.00 if you are selling by yourself. Figure about $3.00 promotional cost per unit leaves you with $12.00 to $15.00 net per unit. Sales of only 50 weekly could net $600.00 to $900.00 weekly. Sales to stores offered at 40% off wholesale on $8.00 would still leave you with $7.00 to $9.00 each profit. The potential earnings from having just a few titles out in stores can be outstanding.

METAPHYSICAL PERSONAL PROBLEM COUNSELING

One-to-one personal problem counseling is the most rewarding area of work for many metaphysicians, while at the same time, the least financially remunerative. It is suggested that graduates do no more than four hours of counseling a day as negative vibrations can begin to take effect. Psychiatrists, as an example, have the highest suicide rate of any professional group. It is one thing to hear another person's problems occasionally, but very difficult to be doing it hour after hour, day in and day out.

The average charge by metaphysical counselors today is $50 per hour. Working four hours a day equals $200.00 per day or $1,000 per week based on a five-day week.

It should be noted that people do not generally beat down the door to see a metaphysical counselor. Consultations usually result from giving lectures and teaching classes. This is what our universities advise its doctoral degree graduates to do.

We have found that the average person seeking metaphysical counseling comes for an average of three consultations. A long-term series of consultations, such as in Psychiatry, is the exception rather than the rule in Metaphysics.

This means that if counseling work is your primary interest, you must continually be acquiring new people for your practice through lectures, seminars or church ministry, as previously stated.

PRACTITIONERS WORK (SPIRITUAL HEALING)

Years ago, Mary Baker Eddy conceived the idea of the metaphysical practitioner. Many metaphysical teachers and organizations have adopted this idea down through the years.

A metaphysical practitioner is generally a person who accepts requests for prayer treatment for physical, emotional and/or financial conditions needing improvement. Not all use prayer. Some use meditation and others use telepathic healing.

Most professional practitioners, who have been active for some time, generally take such requests over the telephone or by mail. Many have a standard weekly charge for giving treatments. That is, they agree to treat at least once daily for a week, or however long agreed upon, or until the condition is cleared up.

The average weekly charge today is $50.00. A well-established practitioner may be treating as many as 50 to 100 people weekly. In terms of income, such a practice could mean an income of $2,500.00 to $5,000.00 per week.

Practitioners usually establish their clientele by attending all metaphysical functions of the organization to which they belong, and/or by giving lectures or courses on Spiritual Healing, or through a church ministry.

The current holistic trend toward alternative medicine is increasing the demand for metaphysical practitioners, and should continue to do so for many years to come.

As stated previously, while our universities cannot guarantee how much you might expect to earn, we can definitely state that if your interest is more in healing, you probably have the best of all opportunities in the Metaphysical field today.

Your doctoral degree from the University of Metaphysics or University of Sedona would certainly be a help in the healing area, as most people psychologically associate the title "Doctor" with healing.

MAIL ORDER

The success over the years of such metaphysical mainstay organizations such as the Rosicrucians in San Jose, California, Astaro, The Mayans, and others, offers proof that mail order can be a successful vehicle for communication of metaphysical knowledge. These organizations all have excellent material, of course, which is the true factor underlying their continued growth and success. There is room for more, however, as we currently see more and more new organizations operating along the same lines.

Mail order enterprises offering recordings, tape cassettes, CD's, DVD's, Videos and products such as pyramids, metaphysical jewelry, etc. have all done well in recent years.

Astrological Analysis, especially promoted through the use of computers, has been and continues to be enormously successful.

Obviously, whatever form of mail-order venture you may choose to go into could be greatly enhanced by your having doctoral degree recognition from the University of Metaphysics or the University of Sedona. We are not saying that it will assure your success in the metaphysical mail-order business, but it certainly will add to your chance of success, especially if you are a beginner or not well known in the Metaphysical field.

LEGALITIES FOR TEACHING, COUNSELING AND HEALING IN METAPHYSICS TODAY

In seeking doctoral recognition in the Metaphysical field, it is very important that you understand the legalities. This will help you to understand why your Doctoral Degree Program is set up the way it is.

First, the field of the Holistic New Thought or Metaphysics does not fall under the label of Psychology, which is the closest to it of all established professional fields. The explanation for this is that most metaphysical teachings incorporate, or have as their main theme, the spiritual nature of the human being. Hence, many years back, Metaphysics was established as a Spiritual Philosophy and, thus, under existing state laws, nationwide, was placed in the legal classification of Religion.

Anyone that you see teaching, counseling or healing in Metaphysics today, if doing so with legal protection, is operating in the field of Religion and has a legal ministerial status. They may choose not to advertise this fact or call attention to it unless challenged to do so, unless, of course, they have chosen to open up a clearly apparent spiritual center or church.

Your own legal right to teach, counsel, or heal in Holistic, New Thought Metaphysics today is determined by having an ordained ministerial status, not upon a doctoral degree in Metaphysics. The primary purpose of the doctoral degree is to establish a highly professional image of you as a person who is truly learned in Holistic, New Thought Metaphysics and has taken the time to obtain a doctoral level of knowledge.

For the reasons stated, therefore, you must have a ministerial status to practice legally. As explained later in this report, you may obtain such ministerial status in our six-month ministerial training course. The subjects covered in the curriculum of this course are listed further on in this Prospectus.

Ministerial status with the International Metaphysical Ministry is, therefore, a prerequisite for studying and earning a doctoral degree from our universities. You must earn your doctoral degree by having first obtained ministerial status with the International Metaphysical Ministry. Also, you may earn a doctoral degree from the University of Metaphysics or University of Sedona if you already possess ministerial standing with another organization; however, you will still need to achieve ministerial status with the International Metaphysical Ministry.

For those applying to the University of Metaphysics or the University of Sedona who have achieved a ministerial status with another organization, and/or those who have not achieved a ministerial status before, the doctoral study and examination requirements are exactly the same. These requirements are outlined later in this Prospectus

Upon successful completion of the Doctoral Degree Program, those students who have Ministerial standing with the International Metaphysical Ministry will be awarded one of the following degrees, the choice being determined by the student's focus and subject of the Master's Thesis and Doctoral dissertation:

ORDINATION DIPLOMAS AND PRACTITIONERS DIPLOMAS

As part of any of the Doctoral Degree programs you choose, you are awarded both an Ordination Diploma and a Practitioners Diploma.

- Ordained Ministers Diploma. Demonstrates that you have taken holistic, new thought metaphysically oriented studies. Ordained ministry status provides legal right to engage in counseling, spiritual healing work, perform marriages and other ministerial rights. Please note that you must establish an independent ministry according to the laws of your state, county, country or province to enjoy the benefits of ministerial standing such as tax advantages. Awarding of your minister's diploma is also the legal basis for awarding and maintaining your Doctoral Degree. The Minister's Diploma is awarded at the same time as your Bachelor's Degree.
- Practitioners Diploma. Demonstrates you have studied the principles and practices of Spiritual Mind Healing of physical, emotional, and other life problems. Awarded at the same time as your Bachelor's Degree and Ordination Diploma.

HOW YOUR MINISTERIAL STATUS OPERATES

Now that you have an understanding of why a ministerial status is necessary to operate legally in Metaphysics, the following describes how simply your ministerial status operates.

As stated, you must have a ministerial status to operate legally, apart from your masters and doctoral degree. Once you have been granted ministerial status, you must maintain that status. You must show some relationship between yourself as an independent minister and the parent body, the International Metaphysical Ministry, that gives you the legal right to practice and for justification of the legal use of your degree titles.

This relationship between the International Metaphysical Ministry, as the parent body, and those with a ministerial status has been developed into a very simple system that takes little time and effort. Here is how it works: Upon completion of your first six months of study, your ordination papers will be mailed to you along with twelve Minister's Monthly Report Forms. These are one-page reports of your monthly activities. Included with these reports will be twelve envelopes for your convenience in mailing them each month. As these reports are received, they are entered into your personal file. Should anyone challenge your ministerial status, your file will reflect your active status. Why is this necessary? Because it provides evidence of a continuing relationship between you, the minister, and the parent organization, the International Metaphysical Ministry. Evidence of a continuing relationship confirms your current ministerial status for the purpose of meeting local civil government codes and ordinances. This evidence of an ongoing affiliation also protects you from the possibility of being confused with a diploma mill mail-order ministry, where a person merely sends in money to the degree issuing office, is issued ordination papers and then, has no further contact with the issuing organization. This lack of a continuing relationship between the minister and the issuing organization could bring the minister's status into question with various government bodies.

Our system of mailing in monthly report forms demonstrates that you are an active minister with a reputable religious educational organization. What do we mean by "reputable?" Our original parent body ministry was founded in 1959, maintains its own facilities, and has year-round activities. The name was changed in 1989 to the International Metaphysical Ministry to better reflect the scope of the ministry, which has truly become international. Imagine that if you had some legal difficulty about your right to practice, based on your ordination, and found that the organization from which you received your credentials had suddenly disappeared. You could then be in difficulty, legally.

Now that you understand the necessity of having a ministerial status and how it works, the next question in your mind may well be the cost.

The cost to you is $60 yearly. Divided by 12 months, this amounts to only $5.00 monthly, a small sum, indeed, to pay for the ministerial standing in a worldwide ministry to which you are afforded. The $5.00 monthly, or $60 annually, is principally used to cover clerical costs involved in the handling of your monthly reports, necessary entries in your personal minister's file, etc.

This sum is due at the time of issuance of your ministerial credentials. The date on which you sign the ordination vows commences your yearly cycle of payment.

Remember, this sum is apart from the tuition of your Doctoral Degree Program and, again, is not due until you are on a ministerial status. Incidentally, as surely is apparent, once you have received your ordination papers, you may legally practice. This applies whether or not you plan to continue in the Doctoral Program, providing local and state requirements are met, as explained on the concluding page of this report.

LEGITIMACY

If you were really interested in establishing yourself as a true professional in Metaphysics, would you want someone to check on your background and then spread the word that you had never studied anything at any time and that all you did was to send away a few dollars to some diploma mill ministry? Such operations come and go quickly. We have seen them follow this pattern year after year.

As you are most likely a person of integrity with a sincere interest in the field of Metaphysics, we are sure that you agree that this would be no way to enter this field professionally. Oh yes, some offer to "sell" you a doctoral degree. Would you want others to know that all you did to get a doctoral degree was to send in money, with no study and that you "bought a title?" Of course not. Many have had their work ruined and reputations lost in this way.

Again, this would not be the way to get off to a good start as a professional in Holistic, New Thought Metaphysics, nor to maintain a good professional image if you are already practicing professionally in the field. It would be even more of a shame if you had studied on your own for years and actually earned your knowledge, to have someone try to discredit you and claim that you're not qualified because you received your papers from a diploma mill. We are certain that you can see the picture clearly.

PERSONAL AND EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ENTRANCE IN THE DOCTORAL PROGRAM OF THE UNIVERSITY OF METAPHYSICS

AGE: 18 years minimum

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND: High school or its equivalent, as earned through a high school equivalency test or through practical work experience.

STUDY BACKGROUND: Holistic, New Thought Metaphysical study background can be either formal (i.e., through attendance in formal courses or classes, or informal (self-taught through books, tapes, etc.), or a longstanding interest and self-study of philosophy, psychology, self-help disciplines, religion, motivation and/or related areas.

PERSONAL REFERENCES: At least three personal references as to character, integrity, etc., must be provided on the original application form, submitted at the time of your enrollment by mail. A letter will be sent to each of the personal references you submit, so be certain that addresses are correct. Due to the personal contact with the public in the work, anyone with a felony in his or her background should not apply.

TRANSCRIPTS: We maintain a permanent file on all of our doctoral students and graduates. While it is not necessary that documentation of other awards be in your file, it does help to establish a better student profile. Transcripts of your work are available and can be sent out at your request.

TUITION: Required tuition must accompany your original application, according to the payment plan you have chosen, in order for us to proceed with the processing of your enrollment.

TUITION AND THE AWARDING OF YOUR DIPLOMAS AND DEGREES

Three tuition payment plans are offered, as follows:

1. Prepayment of entire tuition
2. Fourteen-month Short-Term Payment Plan
3. 36-month Student Payment Contract Plan

If you enroll in Tuition Plan 1, your diplomas and degrees will be awarded to you at the time of completion and successful acceptance of the study requirements for each section of your doctoral degree program.

If you enroll in Tuition Plan 2, your diplomas and degrees will be awarded to you at the time of successful completion of the Bachelors study requirements when the tuition is one-third paid, and completion of the Masters when the tuition is two-thirds paid. The doctoral degree will be awarded upon successful completion of the doctoral study assignment at such time as the tuition has been paid in full.

If you select Tuition Plan 3, as your method of payment, your diplomas and degrees will be awarded on the same schedule as in Tuition Plan 2, i.e., the Bachelors when tuition is one-third paid and the Masters when tuition is two-thirds paid. With study requirements completed, the doctorate will be awarded at such time as your tuition has been paid in full.

The selection of Tuition Plan 1 would, therefore, facilitate the awarding of your diplomas and degrees as they are earned. The selection of Tuition Plan 2 would facilitate the awarding of your Bachelors and Masters degrees as they are earned, commensurate with tuition payments, and your doctorate, when earned, with tuition paid in full. Either of these plans would be to your advantage if time were a factor in receiving your diplomas and degrees.

If time is a factor and you are unable at the present time to budget Plans 1 or 2, enroll under Plan 3. Because this plan calls for a 36-month contract, with improved financial conditions at a later date you would be able to pay off your contract earlier than scheduled. Important—please note. Our universities finance all student payment plans at NO interest. There are no banks or outside finance companies to deal with. Credit is extended to everyone together with those with no credit or bad credit.

FORMAT OF OUR OFF-CAMPUS DOCTORAL DEGREE PROGRAM (A ONE-YEAR PROGRAM)
“THREE STEPS TO EARN YOUR DOCTORAL DEGREE IN METAPHYSICS”

FIRST STEP – APPROXIMATELY SIX MONTHS:

Ordained Minister/Practitioner status is accomplished by taking weekly exams on the 48 scheduled lessons. The exams are to be mailed in together after completion of all the lessons. A score of 80% is required for passing. With 48 lessons in all, covering a twenty-six week period, the average would be close to two lessons per week. Approximate time needed to study lessons and answer exam questions is about two hours weekly. Upon completion of the requirements of the first 26 weeks, your Ministerial/Practitioner status is established and you are awarded your ordained minister's diploma and a practitioner's diploma in Metaphysics. At the same time, you are awarded a bachelors degree in Metaphysics. These degrees and diplomas are awarded by mail unless you choose to participate in a formal cap and gown ceremony, which is held periodically.

SECOND STEP – APPROXIMATELY THREE MONTHS:

Establishment of Masters degree level of competency, leading to professional work with the public. The first six weeks of this second step period are devoted to the master degree lessons, 18 in all, at the rate of three lessons per week, requiring approximately three hours weekly in study time. A score of at least 80% is required for passing. The balance of this 3-month period would be devoted to writing a master's thesis. The thesis must be a minimum of 6,000 words, based on a subject of your choice from the material covered in the master level lessons. Upon completion of the thesis, mail in the thesis and the master level exams together at the same time. Upon meeting the requirements, you will be awarded a master's degree in Metaphysics by mail unless you choose to receive it in person at one of our formal graduation ceremonies.

THIRD STEP – APPROXIMATELY THREE MONTHS:

The final quarter of your one-year program consists of writing a doctoral dissertation of a minimum of 10,000 words on any metaphysical subject you may choose, following closely the Doctoral dissertation Outline. This outline will be sent to you upon completion of your master's degree work. The doctoral dissertation is to be submitted at the conclusion of the final three months of your one-year Doctoral Degree Program. Upon review and acceptance of your dissertation, you will be awarded your doctoral degree. Again, this will be done by mail unless you opt to participate in a formal graduation ceremony that takes place periodically.

MASTERS DEGREE LEVEL OF KNOWLEDGE LESSONS

These lessons are written especially for the professional in the Holistic, New Thought Metaphysical Field. These are not just lessons on subjects that you may have studied before. Dr. Paul Leon Masters, Founder and President of the International Metaphysical Ministry university system, bases content of these lessons on his 46 years of full-time metaphysical practice and extensive contacts with other professional metaphysicians during that time. Such tremendously valuable text and lesson material – necessary to help you to achieve success as a Doctoral Professional – is not available in books, and to our knowledge, only in this course of study.

- METAPHYSICAL SEMANTICS AND DOCTORAL COMMUNICATION
- EXPLORING THE CHOICE OF METAPHYSICAL OPERATION: TEACHING AND/OR COUNSELING CENTER OR CHURCH

The 48 lessons, outlined in Step 1 of “THREE STEPS TO EARNING YOUR DOCTORAL DEGREE,” plus these 18 masters level lessons in Step 2, brings the total number of written lessons and exams in the program to 66. These lessons, in addition to the submission and approval of your master’s thesis and doctoral dissertation constitute the total requirements for the awarding of your doctoral degree.

A written examination must be taken on each of these lessons to establish that you have a master’s degree level of knowledge and mastery for subsequent application in your dealings with the public in Holistic, New Thought Metaphysics.

PERFORMING METAPHYSICAL MINISTER’S RITES: MARRIAGE, FUNERAL OR BAPTISM

EXPLANATION OF HOW YOUR DOCTORAL DEGREE RELATES TO YOUR PRACTICE OF METAPHYSICS

Great detail has been provided to give you a thorough understanding of the importance of your ministerial status. Now, let us discuss the importance of your doctoral degree.

WHAT YOUR DOCTORAL DEGREE TITLE CAN DO FOR YOU

Immediately you are established as a true professional in the field of Holistic, New Thought Metaphysics. Many people practicing today have a ministerial status but very few have a doctoral degree. Obtaining their degree from a diploma mill, makes the degree suspect and casts doubt on their qualifications to practice professionally.

Your degree serves you well, should you write a book, give public lectures, etc. because you will be received as a “Doctor” of your subject. In many instances, along these lines or others that you might wish to pursue, your title of “Doctor” alone could make the difference between dismal failure and glowing success.

Your degree gives you dignity in practicing counseling, since people going to see a counselor tend to think of it as “seeing their Doctor.”

Your degree provides greater substance to any practice of Spiritual Healing in which you may become engaged. Psychologically, the title of “Doctor” and healing has a natural affinity in one’s mind.

EXPLANATION OF THE TWO DIPLOMAS AWARDED UPON SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF THE FIRST SIX MONTHS STUDY

The Ministerial Ordination Diploma gives one the legal right to teach, lecture, counsel, practice spiritual healing, perform marriage ceremonies, baptisms and funerals, etc. along metaphysical lines providing local, state, and national requirements are met. It is literally the key to legal operation in the field of Holistic, New Thought Metaphysics.

PRACTITIONER’S DIPLOMAS

At the same time as receiving the Ministerial Ordination Diploma, one also receives a Practitioner’s Diploma. A Practitioner’s Diploma deals specifically with healing practices. It started with the Christian Science movement, and has been adopted for decades by other metaphysical organizations. In reality, the Minister’s Ordination Diploma protects one’s right legally to practice Spiritual Healing. However, we issue this diploma and status since many in the metaphysical field seeking help are more familiar and more comfortable dealing with a “Practitioner.”

AN EXPLANATION OF THE STATUS OF THE DOCTORAL DEGREE IN HOLISTIC, NEW THOUGHT METAPHYSICS

As previously explained, the field of Holistic, New Thought Metaphysics, as it is practiced today, comes under the legal classification of Religion. Again, the reason being that most people in the field deal with the spiritual nature of man. It follows then that the status of one’s doctoral degree in Holistic, New Thought Metaphysics is also considered of a religious or spiritual nature.

Metaphysics, as it is commonly taught—that is, along spiritual lines—has not been a part of the academic community, again because it is spiritual in nature. Metaphysics is taught in Philosophy courses at academic universities as a branch of “Speculative Philosophy,” which is not the method of teaching commonly used by practitioners of Metaphysics.

Therefore, Metaphysics, as it is popularly taught today, does not fit into the mold of the academic community. Because of this, your doctoral degree in Holistic, New Thought Metaphysics, while completely legal in every way, is not considered an academic degree but a doctoral degree in a specialized area of Religion. Credit and recognition for metaphysical study alone – which is what we are dealing with – is therefore, placed in a positive perspective, as it should be.

STUDY AT YOUR OWN PACE

A ONE-YEAR PROGRAM WITH AN ACCELERATED ALTERNATIVE FOR THOSE WISHING TO COMPLETE THE PROGRAM IN LESS THAN A YEAR

Your Doctoral Degree Program is designed to take one year of study. However, since you have the option of progressing at your own pace, it is possible to complete the program in less time. You may already be a professional in Metaphysics and feel that if you had your doctoral recognition earlier, it could help you to advance your career. For whatever the reason, if you wish to complete the requirements in less than one year, please attach a note to this effect when mailing in your application for entrance into our Doctoral Degree Program.

The above procedure is not to imply that you must complete the program in one year. We have found that students sometimes have temporary disruptions in their schedules and have to request additional time to complete their course of studies. Should this occur during your studies, send a written request and a time extension can be granted. Extensions of up to two years from the original date of enrollment can be granted.

IMPORTANT LEGAL NOTICE REGARDING PROFESSIONAL MINISTERIAL STATUS

It cannot be stressed too strongly that as a holder of ministerial status, you will have the standing of a professional in common with all other professional persons in your community. You may have to fulfill certain state and local requirements in order to practice your profession.

Just as attorneys must comply with state and local bar rules to practice law in their community after they have received their degrees, and allopathic doctors must satisfy state and local medical board standards to practice medicine after they have received their medical degrees, you may have to comply with certain local requirements in order to practice as a minister in your state. For example, your state or province, or your city or county may have certain registration or licensing requirements for those who practice ministerial teaching and counseling. One example of this would be the requirement that those who counsel must obtain a business license. Another example would be that those who practice under the name of a church have to file a Fictitious Business Name Statement (such as "John Jones doing business as the Church of _____" Also those ministers who intend to perform ceremonies such as baptism, marriage, or funeral rites, must meet certain state, provincial and/or local standards. Finally, as most of you are aware, those who intend to practice Metaphysical Healing Arts must be sure to comply with any state or local laws stipulating what ministers who are not doctors of medicine can and cannot do in healing people.

Because the laws of each state and Canadian provinces, and the ordinances of each county, city, and other local units in the United States, Canada, and other countries vary in particulars regarding the above matters, it is impossible to provide even a summary in this report of all these state and local laws.

Therefore, once you have obtained your ministerial status, if you intend to establish a ministerial practice, we strongly advise you to check with your local government authorities regarding compliance with the laws, ordinances and/or regulations of your state or community. If you still have questions, you should consult with an attorney in your area familiar with these requirements in order that you may fully comply with them.
